

Epilepsy Awareness Training

Friday 13th of November 2009

Training by Fiona Boorman

Aims and Objectives

Promote and expand knowledge of epilepsy.

To be aware of different seizure type and terminology.

To gain knowledge and increase confidence of medical and practical seizure management.

To consider risk, safety and

To plan effective and holistic care for people with epilepsy.

To highlight further training needs.

To consider wider implications of epilepsy for the person and their family.

Time: 1:45pm – 3:15pm

Venue: Sandgate School, Sandylands Road, Kendal, LA9 6JG

Cost: Free, including certificate of attendance

For more information or to book your place on one of the course sessions, please contact the School Nurses Office on 01539 738 662.